Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Sunday, June 17, 2001 - 10:00 a.m.

Have you made a great discovery by noticing the behaviour of your fellow creatures? Do not expect anything of others; you will not be disappointed. Apart from food, there are other great moments, which you can share: is this not the main thing? Enjoy these moments, with no regrets – which are not altogether constructive.

"The important thing is elsewhere; you have understood it for a long time. Focus on what you have yet to achieve: you have a goal to reach and your line of action is all mapped out. It is up to you to see to it that these many messages, which constitute an invaluable legacy, can take off. Spare yourself; in spite of all your goodwill, there is nothing more you can do. Keep your strengths for the main thing. We know, we who are not fooled by appearances, that you cannot do more.

"Convey all our blessings to your dear visitors."
