Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Tuesday, June 19, 2001 - 10:00 a.m.

We are not going to overload you too much today. Enjoy the presence of your dear children of heart and convey our blessings to them. We like their burning hearts that serve us with faith. This faith gives its true dimension to life: a blooming, which makes it partake in the divine work which is carried out among men for their salvation. By adhering to this unsuspected power which releases humanity from these miasmas, you ascend while helping your fellow creatures who do not have the chance and opportunity, in this incarnation, to follow an edifying path. The laws of evolution are rather strict; the time of divine achievements must be established. It matures slowly in the secrecy of hearts, at a pace that makes light of the rules of time.

"Whatever may happen, you should be and remain surrendered to divine providence, as far as you are concerned, and to the care provided by your Master, who, like an enlightened shepherd leading his flock with vigilance, never abandons the latecomers and the least motivated. He remains benevolent and patient: this is the best guarantee of success, which must also encourage you to keep doing better."
