Beloved Master
Revered Babuji Maharaj

Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Thursday, June 28, 2001 - 10:00 a.m.

Your small voice of a child, as you call it, can touch hearts. Fine words are not the most convincing; we are more easily moved by sincere accents. All is so simple, why do men always want to complicate everything? What is more moving than a disciple's love for his Master and vice-versa? This concept should never escape your attention; it can earn you much forgiveness. It may seem outdated to you in this world where human reactions are disconcerting, based on materialism and intellectual views, as well as the prevailing trends of thought – conformist and narrow.

"Try to remain yourselves, released from all this jumble of things. Let your true nature emerge; it has no use for these ridiculous fashions, which categorise individuals in absurd classifications. Though gregarious instinct urges you to live in society, try to keep your true personality without undergoing the harmful effects of this community moulded in stupid egotistic effects. Be wary of fashions, of men's imagination, of their mental states, sometimes crazy, that can lead to the worst excesses. See to it that, in all circumstances, you remain united with the divinity residing in you. It cannot mislead you."

Babuji