Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Monday, July 2, 2001 - 7:00 a.m.

The issue of messages will have to be settled by your Master and you. You may wish to send him those you will have selected and you will decide together on their future. This is our wish that is being expressed herein. There is no urgency. In the meantime you may decide, if you so wish, to send him some messages directly intended for him and which he does not yet know of. That's all.

"In the event of any feeling of weakness on your part, and according to your wishes, nothing should be done without the agreement of our ambassador, whom you have chosen as the only possible negotiator with my son. It is wise to formulate this and to clearly specify what is desirable. We highly value this special teaching meant to help our candidates. It will show them another facet of our teachings that does not appear in our literature. All possible measures will be taken in the future for our candidates to have access to them. Rest assured, my daughter, all is not finished. We had to express ourselves in this way today, to reassure you on the future of this invaluable harvest.

"Be at peace, continue to serve us with love and all will be well."
