Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Monday, July 2, 2001 - 10:00 a.m.

Go beyond all human baseness; don't you have better things to do than dwelling on them? Nothing of this sort should amaze you any more. In the spiritual area, you have yet to discover so much; it conceals a richness that would amaze you if you could apprehend it in its full extent. It comprises multiple facets, which you will be able to discover with time, as you advance. May your desires relate only to this discovery; you will not be disappointed. You have explored human experiences, those which are acceptable (the others are not unknown to you), and you know how much remains to be done so that this world is purified and it is uplifted to a different status. Continue to advance with a fervent heart; may your enthusiasm in this aspect never wane. May the process of detachment that is taking place in you enable you to target your efforts well and put things in perspective, in terms of the most useful aspects of your life. It will continue beyond this incarnation, divested of the useless and the miasmas of this world. Only consider the beautiful, love your fellow creatures, be helpful towards those who did not receive your lights – and there are many of them. Go in peace and do your level best, as per your heart."
