Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Tuesday, July 3, 2001 - 10:00 a.m.

We are happy to see you arrive at this level of wisdom. Your efforts and our work bring you to this state, which was acquired after a brave fight that was established in the depths of the being. Some of your acts may happen to be temporarily out of step with this state. They are only chance and superficial manifestations. The well-established and acquired aspect mentioned above very quickly replaces such reactions in a context reflecting the profound nature and its reality. When the foundations are strong, everything is back to normal again and the forward progress can continue without mishaps. It happens that these readjustments are necessary; be vigilant, human nature is weak. Generally, you do not appreciate that we underline your weak points, as you feel disappointed by this. You can see very well what is wrong in others; you are more lenient with yourself. You prefer to blind yourselves to these shady areas residing in you instead of bringing them into broad daylight. You lack courage; you do not find enough strength to take this step. Each thing in its own time! The main thing is to progress and strongly aspire to advancing this transformation of the conscious being. We follow your efforts, even more than your results.

"Place all your confidence in the Master you chose; he helps you to manage the situation. Give him your love unreservedly; that is all that he asks of you in return. It is the most judicious step you can take."
