Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Wednesday, July 4, 2001 - 10:00 a.m.

Your heart is the receptacle of our love; as such our comments filtering through it are tinged with its substance. Whether you want it or not, you partake in it and you influence our words. This results from the states of your soul. As we already said, you are not a machine conveying without emotion what we dictate to it. This would be monotonous for us and for others; they would not feel this subtle perfume resulting from a special alchemy, fruit of this love which binds us. Everything has its raison d'être, men of the future will revert to healthier words, devoid of an exaggerated intellectualism that blurs the faculty of thinking. They will manage to put things in perspective and will remain vigilant so that the true impulses of the heart are not concealed for wrong reasons.

"Divine love must express itself with all its might; its power can change the world, but whether it will manifest itself or not is another matter. Beware of futile reasoning; love and intelligence do not contradict each other. Take these barriers out of your mind. The Creator blessed man with a great richness of expression, all you have to know is to take advantage of it by rejecting no opportunity."
