Whispers from The Brighter World

A Third Revelation

Do not associate our comments with psychoanalytical vocabulary. They completely distance themselves from that discourse which future times will put back in a more right context than is currently the case. Our comments are not in line with that; we are not at the same level of consciousness. We will not undertake a comparative study that would be tedious for our aspirants. They feel instinctively that the spiritual life that is growing in them does not fit in any category codified by men.

"It is beyond all intellectual assumptions, however right they claim to be. No [psycho-] analyst approaches it in its reality, which is beyond human understanding.

"Continue to make progress in your work; one day you will see the light in you. It will enable you to have access to some knowledge, not indexed in the most erudite books.

"True knowledge develops at the heart level, the sacred place which it suffuses very slowly. Call for its manifestation in you, far away from all the theories built up by men. This discovery must take place in each one of you; it results from your work, your aspiration to unite with the Divine, who will really enlighten you about your true nature, which men cannot do."
