Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Friday, July 6, 2001 - 10:00 a.m.

Be able to make a clean sweep inside yourself. Forget your knowledge, that which influences your daily life. Be truly surrendered to the spiritual work that must take place in you. Human knowledge-related criteria cannot enlighten you on the intense and important aspects you are experiencing in your heart. Regarding your evolution, pay attention to what you are feeling without trying to analyse it against obsolete rules. We insist on this point to enable you to simplify your process. Forget the complicated theories of all that you may have read or learned during your lifetime and which does not fit into this context. Approach your sadhana with a heart divested of any intellectual views. Be open to novelty, while advancing in the labyrinth of this knowledge, serenely, trustful like a child and guided on an unknown path the richness of which will surprise you. Get rid of what is unnecessary, superfluous; true wisdom requires this price. Be open to divine inspiration; it is hard to reconcile with a path heavily obstructed with false ideas and inappropriate principles. Remain vigilant on this point."
