Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Sunday, July 15, 2001 - 10:00 a.m.

To meditate deeply is to surrender and let the divine energy flow freely within oneself, it is also to have one's heart fully converted to this step; the most important thing can be obtained only under these conditions. Make every effort to achieve the best. Be receptive, choose a suitable place for this ritual and isolate yourself, in every sense of the word. Prepare yourself thoroughly by adopting good habits which will become acquired through this practice. Make this moment a festive one. This journey deep into yourself must lead you to the heart of the being, this heart which is also the heart of the world. Its resources are infinite; they can propel you on to planes of rare beauty which leave you ecstatic and grateful. Don't feel discouraged if you don't reach this shore as quickly as you would like; perseverance is your best guarantee of success. It will be even more exciting when you possibly could have a taste of it. Pursue your search tirelessly, it is the ultimate goal of the real being which resides in you and is thirsting for this sublime fulfilment."
