Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Saturday, July 21, 2001 - 7:45 a.m.

Hatred and jealousy are degrading and destructive feelings; they are the scourge of the world. Men kill one another for territories, ideas or religions; these are the main motives for war. Evil is everywhere; how can it be overcome and people's minds be changed? Man is domineering; this is due to his low instincts, when they manifest themselves at this level. Only spirituality can bring light to this world, only it can change the hearts and ensure that tolerance is effective among men. Tolerance, this is the keyword; it could change the face of things and bring about a drastic transformation. A redeeming spirit will have to be felt, for humanity to evolve favourably. Future times will see a change in mentalities. Man will no longer be in desperate straits – as he sometimes is – nor be mesmerised by money power. He will have another view of life, a philosophy more respectful of the laws governing it, which will modify his behaviours and the purposes of his existence. All this is not for tomorrow; let us work together and contribute to this advent."
