Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Sunday, July 22, 2001 - 9:00 a.m.

Don't dwell on difficulties which arise in your daily life, they are mere episodes. As you know, the main thing is elsewhere, you should only consider this prospect and react accordingly in the face of arising problems. Life is a long learning process; its final outcome is subject to the efforts produced, with full knowledge of the facts. Spiritual development is concomitant with this material life and partakes of the noblest register of this program. It requires special attention, which forms a precious asset for your ultimate test. Do not dawdle along the way; be able to recognise where your priorities lie. Face up to the vagaries of your life, but do not neglect its basic quality. We will keep repeating ourselves until the end of this long series of messages, giving you the same advice. It is essential for us to draw your attention to this significant aspect of your life. Many reasons can distract you from your attraction for spiritual practice. You should remain vigilant on this point; you cannot make up for lost time."
