Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Friday, July 27, 2001 - 10:00 a.m.

Yes, my child, sing the praises of your Master, call him in you, in this space where the best communion is possible. Your soul exults in this contact, it has found its access path to it and we rejoice in this union of your two souls. It takes much time to reach one's destination. You also can rejoice to have covered such a way. The human being sometimes jibs; he tenses up in an attitude that is not desirable, but he must get over this hurdle and free himself from this sort of limitation. Man, in his mind, puts up barriers to himself, which delays his progress.

"We put emphasis on your own development, because it is not the only case. You are not the only one to behave this way; every human being has his own weak points which we must remove to allow him to advance more quickly. Don't you feel more free and happy to have reached this state of surrender? You put your trust in us, in your Master, since the day you made the first move in our way. If you could really measure the way covered, your joy would be much greater."
