Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Monday, July 30, 2001 - 10:00 a.m.

My daughter, we can hear you; a faithful heart that calls us fervently is always heard. Even more so when the time of our appointment draws near. All this process intrigues you: how is this contact happening? What is the prelude to it? There also we cannot be more explicit; all you have to do is to live this situation and accept things as they are. Wisdom requires this mystery. Explanations would complicate everything. What you are experiencing is special and there is nothing your fellow creatures would gain in knowing more about it. These are subtle processes, which we are using to help Earthlings. The divine laws are unknown to them; an overview would be of no help to them and would result in muddling them. They are hit by so much information of all kinds that we will not add to this profusion.

"Our contacts require some regularity, adherence to schedules – a sort of ritual to facilitate a good and quick connection. On this point also, we are satisfied: you do comply with all these requirements by putting your energy at our disposal, and your love in our service. You fulfil your role perfectly; the choice we made at the outset has proven wise. The result is there in the form of these thousands of messages, some of which we hope will eventually touch the hearts of our readers."
