Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Sunday, August 5, 2001 - 10:00 a.m.

My God, I love you – this is the most beautiful declaration you can make. Never grow tired of repeating it. There is no need for long speeches; when said with real conviction, these few words are enough to open the sacred door. The fervour of your prayer by itself is moving – I love you, my God – what more to say! It is possible to wrap with words this fervour of the heart and let them vibrate in the space endlessly.

"All manifestations of love dedicated to the Creator are blessings for those who express them.

"Don't curb your heart any more; [you should] be able in all circumstances to let it express the impulses it is capable of. Let it open out and show its true nature.

"Man dissimulates sometimes his best aspects, to show only less heartening aspects of his nature. It is up to him to control himself and to let his good aspects open out. No one is completely bad. Call grace in you, always, so that gradually and according to your profound aspiration, it can uplift you to the highest level."
