Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Saturday, August 11, 2001 - 8:00 a.m.

Your prayers are answered when they are meant to serve your evolution. A fervent prayer is always heard, even if the result is not translated in the form you wish. God's ways are unfathomable; they are not adapted to men's desires – restricted to themselves too much and often for childish and superficial motives.

"Sending thoughts of love without any specific formulation is more rewarding for every one among you. They make their way, transported by the appropriate vibratory wave, without any limitation. Become this: a burning prayer and a song of love intended for humanity, appealing to universality and its Creator, its supreme guide. This vocation – indeed this is what it is – will place you in the wake of the angels, who also vibrate with love, compassion and tolerance.

"We ask you to elevate yourself by trying to touch the right chord inside yourself, you who are fed with our messages, who assimilate them with the passing of time and who can – if you manage to get the substantive food out of it – testify to the benefits of this divine alchemy."
