Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Monday, August 13, 2001 - 8:00 a.m.

Would you lose heart, my dear daughter? This is not like you. Your life is not easy; we try to alleviate it, but it remains trying. Your spiritual joys are the sunbeam which light it up."

The Medium: "Babuji, without you my life would be so sad..."

"But such is not the case. We have these daily and productive contacts, resulting in the accumulation of all these messages. When my son knows more about them, he will draw from them an amount of strength that will surprise him. We transmit a certain type of energy through these lines. All this is not easy to understand, but he will grasp very well what emanates from them as well as the meaning of our comments. When the time comes, he will have access to most of them, according to your choice. Our relationship with him is completely different; our exchanges take place at another level of consciousness, higher and suited to his spiritual capabilities.

"One has to accept good aspects reserved by life on this Earth, but also, aspects that are more difficult to bear. Try to never forget what is beautiful and constructive in it. We will not insist any further today; take some rest."
