Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Friday, August 17, 2001 - 10:00 a.m.

My dear daughter, for many years you have been working with the gifts that are yours, to make your fellow creatures catch a glimpse of that beyond which intrigues them. Many of them still think that life ends with this one. The others, more open-minded, admit reluctantly that a communication is possible with beings pursuing their way on other planes of consciousness. That a medium blessed with this faculty can access what is completely beyond them, intrigues them intensely. Among our aspirants, many are not ready to accept this possibility, hence the difficulty in the short term of publishing these messages. Time should be given to them. In the West particularly, minds are not open enough to these practices. Such will not always be the case, don't worry; a time will come when, obviously, evidence and facts will foster the possibility of making these messages known very widely. May light arise in people's minds, so that human understanding can make progress on this truth."
