Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Monday, August 20, 2001 - 8:00 a.m.

You are our favourite medium, chosen for this special role which is far from insignificant. You know the importance we attach to it. In spite of the obscurantism re-emerging in this country, better times will come which will allow this work to take on its full meaning. For the moment, it is important to receive these messages and to prepare them to play their own role. You who have been perusing them for some time, you can assess, according to the importance you attach to them, the benefits they provide you.

"If your minds are sharp enough, you can, by looking at them as a whole, make an exegesis of them for your greatest benefit. Which conclusion will you draw from them? These messages are simple but coherent; they pertain to a line of thought applicable and accessible to all. A person's mind, in many respects, can be different from other minds. As for the heart, in terms of its characteristic vastness and uniqueness at the spiritual level, it is very close to the multitude as well as to a kind of universal language that can move it and appeal to it.

"The human being, in this secret part of himself, is not different from his fellow beings. The sublime presence in him is identical to theirs and this power unifies and brings closer all the creatures living here below. That is the way it is."
