Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Monday, August 20, 2001 - 10:00 a.m.

Forget your differences, whatever they are, and consider only the main thing: your commonalities, in terms of the sublime and unique aspects within the depth of your being. This bond cannot be destroyed, since it is not under your responsibility. The unique side of your person is unassailable by any human process, which in itself is reassuring. If we draw your attention so much to the weaknesses of mankind, it is to better raise your awareness on the importance of recognising your spiritual development, which can project you into another dimension, more reliable.

"This world of illusion does not foster stability. Anything can be done and undone in no time. See to it that you reach another status, including sound and unfailing values. Your spiritual search must be preserved; it conditions your future life. Your soul is growing stronger; it can continue on its way under the best auspices, with our blessings.

"You chose to take this significant step. The more you advance, the more you realise how artificial this life on Earth is, fake and without real value except for the value you attach to it by fostering its progress and its development towards an easier access towards higher planes."
