Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Tuesday, August 21, 2001 - 10:00 a.m.

You know very well that life on this Earth cannot be perfect. The very principle of an incarnation is to include a number of ordeals and quasi-permanent worries to allow the entity to learn from the school of life. How could this incarnation be rewarding without having to take up this challenge? Living in complete peace would become monotonous. Imagine how your life would be without even the least hassle: could you appreciate, with as much delight, good moments that occur to you? Believe me, all is well like that; one day you will be able to appreciate all the truth of these remarks which are not absolutely convincing you today.

"The personality of a being is shaped with time, as well as by the wisdom which leads him to accepting his destiny. This stay on Earth is unique; it gives you the best tools to achieve your chef-d'oeuvre [masterpiece]. What will become of it? It is up to you to see and fully realise the opportunity being offered to you to succeed. Be cooperative; we are helping you."
