Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

You can see how complicated the human mind is! It can put barriers which limit its own comprehension, when it does not want to understand. This does not matter; these messages were not dictated to you word for word. It may be necessary, in some circumstances and to avoid reactions of this kind, to add a word or to make an amendment for the sake of clarity of the text. We cannot compare these messages with other sacred writings; times are no longer the same and sources are particularly different.

"These small mishaps don't matter. The main thing lies elsewhere. They show nevertheless the reactions these messages will arouse when they are disseminated more widely.

"The very essence of these writings is unassailable and cannot be questioned. It is good that everyone reacts in his own way to this reading; comments must be constructive and go beyond a simplistic phase. The heart's comprehension is above any other one; only it can make one progress in the field that concerns us. We will leave it at that."
