Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Wednesday, September 5, 2001 - 8:00 a.m.

This is how we like to see you: the heart full of love and compassion for your Master. His role is not as easy as abhyasis believe. He must face all the negative aspects resulting from his load. Human beings complicate everything: they criticise, they judge, they extrapolate, and many other sides of their character are to be considered in this matter. They believe his function is restful and they do realise that the work, the worries inherent in the importance of the Mission, engender a great amount of tiredness for a man of his age. All this relates to material work and is added to the spiritual work where he actually gives the best. The latter requires time and energy and knows no rest. So, my dear daughter, your assessment of his physical and moral state is right. You may wish to send him thoughts full of love and enquire about his health. You are yourself in a difficult situation in this aspect and you can understand him. You have all our blessings."
