Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Friday, September 7, 2001 - 10:00 a.m.

Does man ask himself the right questions? That is the question. The majority of individuals do not see beyond their current life and do not give it any special meaning. How, under these conditions, can one see their own life pursue its course and undergo it peacefully! To them, there are no satisfactory answers to the burden it [life] often represents. A human being informed of rules laid down in compliance with the divine laws can contemplate his life by considering it from a positive perspective. He can look at the many tests he must undergo from a different perspective, recognising they are meant for his personal enlightenment.

"It takes a great deal of fortitude to arrive at this stage and stop rebelling against the bad strokes of fate. Having reached this stage of acceptance, man comes out of each ordeal with increased stature. This long process has its ups and downs and rebellion. May you, our dear aspirants, keep growing in wisdom and progress in real surrender which cannot be expressed in words."
