Whispers from The Brighter World

A Third Revelation

Monday, September 10, 2001 - 8:00 a.m.

Did I not already tell you that your body was the best instrument ever? It helps you stride towards the goal. The onus is on you to manage the situation as best you can. We are far from being insensitive to your problems, but we cannot change everything. We help you as much as possible; your life's path, as a whole, must remain as it is. We help you in many ways to carry this burden; all our attentions are not perceptible and yet they accompany your days. See the hand of God in everything, my dear child; whether in joys or in sorrows, you must remain thankful. We know that you are no stranger to this aspect of life and that you understood for a long time that His love could actually be expressed in many ways. Wisdom cannot be easily earned; it takes time to understand all these mechanisms that generally escape human understanding.

"We will once again revert to the concepts of confidence and surrender. It is the only possible way out, to emerge victorious from this combat, i.e., life. We accompany you on this path which seems so long to you."
