Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Tuesday, September 11, 2001 - 8:00 a.m.

Yes, you are right; we said it all, but have you taken all of it in well? Did all our comments reach their target? Did they find an echo in your hearts? We doubt it. This assimilation work – shall we say – takes place slowly according to the aspiration of the being to rise, understand and feel with the beat of each heart where it [assimilation] occurs. [Our purpose] in reverting to the same topics treated in different ways, is to draw your attention more specifically. It takes sometimes such little attention for something to be triggered in [one's mind] and lead you to regard as yours a truth that nevertheless was not obvious for you. This is how the human mind is – it requires time. The transmission and the assimilation of data take place according to your own codes and standards which govern the neurons of your brain. The heart as we view it, i.e., as being the seat of the soul in its subtle part, keeps elements suitable for it. All this work is not necessarily instantaneous, hence the slowness of perception that can occur. Rest assured, just like our medium, you will wonder about these comments – which is very good. This will show that our comments are of concern to you and that, beyond a very mental appreciation, they attain their goal: your own understanding."
