Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Saturday, September 15, 2001 - 10:00 a.m.

Your perceptions must be further refined; they will be of great help to you. You must believe in yourself. You have a sufficient sense of discernment to put things in perspective. You still have a few surprises in store. The great upheavals which we already alluded to have started; in a way, the process is under way. Remain serene. What else can be done, except for relying on God, in the face of men's boundless foolishness? The demonic spirits have their own power, which, in certain circumstances, cannot be countered.

"You all, who are fortunate to benefit from faith and to be engaged in a spiritual process effective and right, whose goal is to release you from your chains, [you] have this priceless recourse. A man who fears neither God nor man, what is he left with in the face of human tragedy? How can he put up with a meanly materialistic life in such a hard and disappointing world? The only thing your inner greatness and beauty wish to do is to express themselves. This tough gangue must at all costs open out and be revealed in full light.

"Time brings everything to an end. Call with fervour for this outcome to be achieved. Keep faith in your Masters; they are the best guarantors in this matter."
