Whispers from The Brighter World

A Third Revelation

Tuesday, September 18, 2001 - 10:00 a.m.

As you can see, finer feelings are being expressed around you! Rejoice, my daughter, whether you like it or not, that day of your birth was a lovely day. Your path is difficult, yet so very rewarding. We will not insist any further so as not to embarrass you, but it was normal that we expressed ourselves on this special day.

"In these moments of great sadness for humanity, love must be able to manifest itself. More than ever, watch your thoughts. Do not condemn your brothers, whatever their race, their religion and the opinions they may express. You will not change the world by criticising severely the protagonists of the ongoing tragedy, which has serious consequences for the future. Each one is blinded by his own point of view, without trying to understand that of his neighbour.

"This planet has entered a difficult phase. Be cautious, you should manage to master your thoughts and comments. You can see only the tip of the iceberg in this matter. It is much more complex than it seems and you can only undergo the repercussions of this tragedy at the human level."
