Beloved Master
Revered Babuji Maharaj

Whispers from The Brighter World

Thursday, March 4, 1999 – 5:30 p.m.

(Babuji responded to what we were saying before the meditation about the scale of work being done in Manapakkam.)

Love mocks expenses. The construction of the Taj Mahal was a hymn to love. I cannot reproach my son for building a sumptuous edifice that will one day become a high place of Sahaj Marg.

Babuji