Whispers from The Brighter World

A Third Revelation

Thursday, September 27, 2001 - 8:00 a.m.

To nourish itself, the soul needs clarity and simplicity. It cannot be satisfied with an intellectual speech meant to show off one's knowledge. Here, we are beyond all these conventions. We go to the main thing to touch men's hearts in their deepest aspiration, where shams and pretences are superfluous. Human dignity exists; it can manifest itself in the most unexpected moments. We place our hopes in this race that must become the best ferment for a new era. Man cannot be completely bad: there exists in his genes a positive aspect, which only requires development. To some extent, this mutation is in the making; this message of hope is far from known. It will take a lot of time to win acclaim, but a new humanity is dawning on the horizon of this world and only this matters. A great cleaning will be necessary to reach that point: all the dregs will have to resurface to be eliminated. The divine power takes its own time to settle its scores. A very complex mechanism elucidates one by one the mystery of anomalies that can exist, and remedies them according to the rules and laws in force."
