Whispers from The Brighter World

A Third Revelation

Thursday, September 27, 2001 - 10:00 a.m.

These messages represent an element of this food of the soul, to which we referred previously. They will have their place in our Mission as a fundamental teaching containing information accessible to all. They were missing and will be very much appreciated in the future, as they will shed a new light on the true meaning of a spiritual step. Our books are not read much; we have to face the facts. A link has to be established between the practice and our literature; these writings will be there to bridge the gap. Our way is just beginning its opening in the world. Hearts are searching; they require a new support, simple in practice and non-dogmatic, not inducing any fanaticism. They will be wearier and wearier of excesses into which they are dragged by certain currents. Future times will bring more clarity to men, who will be able to make choices which really correspond to their needs. This teaching will have to be based on an obvious reality, which contributes to the spiritual rise of men. The group is necessary to structure the Mission, but individual work remains the key element of the system. In the future, everything will be set up to truly allow the radiating that must help regenerate man."
