Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Tuesday, October 2, 2001 - 10:00 a.m.

My dear daughter, these messages enrich your life, which through its tests and daily real-life experience is an inspiration for these writings. Your role is not trivial, as you think it is. You are the target which enables us to reach all your fellow creatures, who also have to grapple in various ways with problems, similar or different from yours. Any life holds a share of tests, which are advisable to manage.

"The wisest men find solace in faith, which prevents them from sinking in the most difficult moments.

"Man has resources in him, which he does not even suspect. In certain dramatic circumstances, he is compelled to act and finds strength that he did not believe he possessed. He is born with a potential that will help him throughout his existence.

"From the very moment of his birth – which is a test for him – he must struggle and adapt to this world. He will keep learning his lessons, until his last moments. Considered from this perspective, this long search is moving, hence our constant efforts in helping suffering humanity. So, you see, my daughter, whenever you are quoted in these messages, through you we address all your brothers and sisters who need to be reassured and guided."
