Thursday, March 4, 1999 - 5:30 p.m.

(Babuji thus reacted to the comments we made before the meditation on the scale of works being carried out in Manapakkam.)

He who loves does not count the pennies. The construction of the Taj Mahal was a hymn to love. I cannot reproach my son for building a sumptuous edifice that will become, one day, a high place of Sahaj Marg."

Babuji