Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Wednesday, October 3, 2001 - 10:00 a.m.

The soul builds on a series of real-life experiences, the roots of which belong to a remote past. It drank at various sources; it was enriched by the sacred memory that makes it keep the best, which constitutes its current richness. Look after this treasure, take advantage of this lifetime to make it bear fruit; there is no limit to these kinds of riches, which under no circumstances will depreciate with time. Quite to the contrary, it [time] gives it an unparalleled lustre.

"These priceless jewels adorn your forehead; they are the sign of recognition that will open doors to you. Cultivate your secret garden. It escapes your fellow men's notice, but it is brightened by a sublime light recognised by similar souls. That family is big; it already exists on this Earth.

"Call upon them, [call] these souls which – like yours – vibrate with love and recognition for the blessed presence that resides in them and stamps them with a divine seal. This subtle vibration shields the blackness of the world; it will have the last word. That of bygone eras will give way to the coming era of light, which is taking place little by little and will end up subjugating humanity.

"Work towards that; you are invested with this mission. All of you, our candidates, become aware of this."
