Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Thursday, October 4, 2001 - 8:00 a.m.

My dear child, this preamble places you from the outset in the heart of this message. You consider your sadhana as essential to your life. You understood that a living Master was necessary to go past some stages, and you are moving forward with faith and the hope to acquire a high level of realisation. This is what we propose to our candidates; what they obtain in this life is an invaluable asset, which conditions their future. Do not lose heart, even if the results are not noticeable. They are there, believe me, and they prepare you for a higher life. We have said it all time and again, but repetitions are not superfluous.

"Some lassitude may happen to overwhelm the most convinced candidate – his efforts seem futile to him. He needs sometimes to be re-motivated to act with more conviction. The path is long, but it is not without prospects. All these years of practice transformed you; the fruits of this work are not easily identifiable and yet they made a new being of you. So, continue to advance, as far as you can; your tests should not slow down your race. We help you and bless you, my dear child."
