Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Thursday, October 4, 2001 - 10:00 a.m.

The Medium: "Forgive me, Babuji, it is true that my current lassitude slows down my ardour for the practice. The heart is in it, but with waning steadfastness. Your understanding encourages me to set out again with more courage."

My daughter, we understand this lassitude and its likely effect on your sadhana. The main thing is preserved and your heart keeps singing our praises: it delights in love. The flame which burns in you is nowhere near to dying out; it will continue to shine in the firmament. We encourage you to continue your efforts, because that is how things must be. In this area, motion cannot stop either: it is as vital as physical activity. The prospect of attaining the goal should not fade with time. Remain quite conscious of this situation. This is not a criticism on our part, but only an encouragement to carry on what has started so well.

"You know it, we are with you in this new test; all our love is not enough to avoid it. Consider it as a new sign of surrender and acceptance on your part. Your ardour in serving us does not wane.

"Be blessed, my dear daughter."
