Whispers from The Brighter World

A Third Revelation

Monday, October 8, 2001 - 8:00 a.m.

The whole life on Earth represents only an illusory large scale role-play made of a series of landscapes changing with the passing of time. Chiaroscuro effects enliven the whole setup and throw into relief all the diversity of mankind.

"The current period will enter a particularly difficult phase, characterised by an upsurge of the hatred that was repressed for a long time and which is likely to kindle violence across the world. Horror will need to be experienced to the bitter end for men to calm down in the face of terror stirred by raging elements. Our genre today is rather of a non-poetic nature, but we have to face the facts since the worst cannot be avoided.

"The hegemony of a people, a race, over the others must sooner or later lead to the worst excesses. The same stories have been repeated endlessly since time immemorial; the difference lies in the sheer size of the means utilised and their destructive power.

"What could contribute to the well-being of humanity is used only for its loss.

"We are powerless to calm things down; we can only witness and work at our level so that ultimate salvation will ensue."
