Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Tuesday, October 9, 2001 - 10:00 a.m.

Some people in the world are suffering painfully; you are until now amongst the privileged ones. It is necessary to face the facts on this point and be thankful for being spared. The wheel of fortune spins round and you are likely to undergo the collateral effects of this terrible war which is brewing. Remain surrendered to the divine mercy, which finds its justification in facts incomprehensible to man.

"Your life does not end with this one; therefore continue on your path with faith and hope for better days when men will wish to see reason, having been defeated on both sides by their own struggle. Each one is convinced to be within their rights, and does not want in any case to consider their brother who is on the other side.

"When men have the wisdom to recognise that they are of the same essence and are the children of God on the same basis, whatever their origin, the world will have taken a great step towards wisdom. It will prevail in future times; so call for this peaceful and salutary revolution for mankind that, without it, is on the road to ruin. Only the supreme grace can save it."
