Whispers from The Brighter World

A Third Revelation

Monday, October 15, 2001 - 8:00 a.m.

Our purpose, in giving these specific messages, is not to throw you into panic, but only to open your eyes to the profound realities of the current conflict, which goes beyond the purportedly targeted objective. Waves of latent and visceral hatred stir up a whole populace against an enemy quite naturally singled out because it represents what the people highly hold in contempt, both being diametrically opposite to each other.

"Two worlds are confronting each other, whose culture, customs and religions are different. Hatred must be expressed in one way or another. Suppressed for too long a time, it leads to the worst of excesses. Each of the two sides is focused on an aspect of revenge, which it absolutely feels like assuaging. This is where human nature is dangerous: when it cannot suppress its bad instincts any more. How can the forces of good fight against evil, when it breaks out with such violence? They act, but they cannot quell this devastating pressure, which will have to continue to the bitter end. These outbursts are part and parcel of a pre-established plan that is leading the world towards its destiny – not of living in this cesspool, but emerging one day towards the divine light, which is the ultimate goal of the process and the supreme reward. There remains a long way to go, but the situation is not desperate. Pray so that this apotheosis will come soon."
