Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Open the door to this luminous space where your heart can be united with ours. Advance step by step and discover what the Masters sowed before you. They left their best to humanity.

"Only the hearts that are ready can discover the beauty of it. My child, yours is heavy this morning. It carries alone a burden that weighs heavily on it. We are providing solace to this unhappy heart. May the words we are dictating to you convey a subtle energy capable of comforting it. Remain in this state of surrender and love; we help you as best we can.

"Yes, once again these comments have some sense of intimacy, but you should consider that, one day, it will touch another unhappy heart that will feel as soothed today as yours. This is how these lines should be understood.

"Humans go through the same torments sooner or later. We know them well as we experienced them and we sympathise. This is amongst the justifications for our solicitude toward mankind: to help, help it unceasingly, on all the levels, so that it emerges towards the light that will save it from all these evils.

"We love all creatures; may they, in their turn, rise to the Divine."
