A Fourth Revelation

Why would you neglect what is the best for you? We do not use up your energy as suggested by this disciple of Aesculapius. You are very tired because of your general state of health. We want the best for you, and for this reason we help you every day by way of these contacts. This mission was awaiting you; it makes your life take on its profound meaning, as it has become important to an extent you did not imagine at the beginning.

"We will not revert again to the purpose of these messages. When they have soared, they will be sought after. The world will need more and more heart-touching and very helpful readings.

"An anxious or unhappy man focuses on the main thing. He is in need of spiritual food that can enlighten and comfort him, giving him hope for the future life reserved for him. They will actually be touched by the simple phrases we are using. If need be, man will revert to the simplicity of the heart, when his mind has understood that only this way is truly enlightening. The heart cannot be mistaken: when it can express itself, it does so carefully."
