Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Wednesday, October 24, 2001 - 10:30 a.m.

The mysteries of love are impenetrable. Symbolically, they are revealed to the candidate who has arrived at the relevant point of evolution. He then looks in the right direction and he is delighted by what he glimpses. He comes out of it with increased stature and determined to continue, desirous of melting into this powerful vibration he can feel in these blessed moments provided by a deep meditation. Being thus united with the divine presence he has inside himself, he keeps in his heart a strong impression. Each time, he aspires with greater motivation to renew this union that leaves him stronger in the face of adversity.

"He must pursue his quest with fervour, without deviating any more from the process that will enable him to achieve his goal. By advancing in this way, he is strengthened by his experiences. They make him regard life from a different perspective and reconsider the importance he attaches to the outstanding events of his existence. Those who are wise know how to put things in perspective and avoid being overwhelmed by what is not worth the trouble. Get stronger, a little more each day, through diligently practising your abhyas, aided by your Masters."
