Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Saturday, October 27, 2001 - 8:00 a.m.

The Medium: "Babuji, Beloved Father, my heart is like an offering laying itself at your feet."

A physical encounter is not required for very strong bonds to exist between souls.

"They know each other sometimes for a very long time, and what they have to do together is only a step in their development.

"As far as we are concerned, it is a page of the great golden book that we are writing together; this one will leave traces.

"This is how it goes: each encounter, wherever it may take place, carries a different history which is added into the register of time.

"This offering you put at my feet, it is God to whom you offer it. All the impulses of love are recorded. Nothing is lost, especially in this area; anything beautiful must be preserved.

"At this level, the heart has its own life. Its impulses shape it and give it its beauty.

"In the long history that leads the soul to its apogee, it has accumulated so many jewels! It is as though they are mounted, forming a crown, and visible to pure hearts vibrating in His light and recognising each other.

"My child, let your heart sing, do not be afraid of exposing it; this melody is getting rare in this world."
