Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Tuesday, October 30, 2001 - 8:00 a.m.

My daughter, your steadfastness in effort allows us to not stop this work in spite of your deficient state of health. You belong to a race of 'fighters' and we appreciate it. This steadfastness is what makes it possible for man to progress in his life and to develop himself. Spiritually speaking, this quality, associated with unfailing faith in one's guide, provides the candidate with the expected results. You cannot assess your own progress, but rest assured: the results are real. It cannot be otherwise. This is where surrender justifies your trust in us. By letting yourself be guided, full of hope in the final success, you place yourselves under the best condition for success.

"Mistrust would cancel out the desired progression. This subtle alchemy occurring in the hearts of men is subject to some rules not codified by them. At the end of the process, they will discover it. They will understand their mistakes while valuing what they nonetheless end up achieving.

"Divine mercy is great; surrender and trust in it open doors. There is much forgiveness when love, this supreme asset, is added to these two qualities. You know the essential elements for success; be blessed in your undertakings."
