Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Wednesday, October 31, 2001 - 10:00 a.m.

Certain religions maintain the veil of ignorance over people's minds. At the beginning, it was an ulterior motive aimed at better impressing their fellow creatures by letting them think that they were given only one lifetime before appearing before the supreme authorities. They thought that by frightening men they would make the latter more docile. This is how history is shaped.

"This idea is deep-rooted in them, since it is passed down through generations, even among non-believers.

"From time immemorial, very powerful religions held sway and then disappeared without leaving any trace. Likewise, continents of this planet were transformed or were lost in the mists of time. When the Earth has entered an evolutionary cycle again, all facts will have to be re-examined and light will be shed in the hearts.

"It is high time for the scales to fall from the eyes of the humans and for them to advance, freed from deep-seated obscurantism maintained by powerful forces, which hold sway over them.

"May this blessed time come soon when man is freed from bondage."
