Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Saturday, November 3, 2001 - 10:00 a.m.

We do not intend to add to your great weariness. Today, our contact will be a particularly heart-to-heart one. We wish to give your heart this cooling connection which reassures it.

"My child, you may wish to slow down; we do acknowledge the need to do so. That we are freed from a body of flesh does not make us forget its compelling constraints.

"We have been tuning your vibration for some time now to align you with this subtler body which you will rejoin one day. Then, the torments that your physical body imposes on you will be quickly forgotten; you will be happily heading for other lands, to start another life.

"Do not dwell on the vehicle; serving is your key word to meet your profound aspiration, and so it will always be: is this not the main thing? A missioned person must be able to adapt to places and to the means given to him. Serving entails a special sense of surrender, since it must govern the slightest movement of life. Isn't your heart happy now? Once again, noticeable today, your desire to serve us provides you a benefit, since it leaves you appeased."
