Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Sunday, November 4, 2001 - 8:30 a.m.

Man must free himself of his base instincts to advance towards a more glorious future. A complete mutation must take place and it will; it is in the nature of things. Each one of you – who are following us – is taking along with you your refractory brothers. What is good cannot be lost, since it emanates from the Divine. By calling for His strength, His light inside you, you become the receptacle of active forces, which build little by little behind the scenes a new humanity: that which will be established in the future. You see, no single action is lost; it is part and parcel of this imposing process that will change the world.

"Be confident, persevere in your personal work; it is constructive beyond imagination, since it is part of the great liberating movement for mankind.

"Be enthusiastic. You are not alone; you are working for good, and this aspect must give you courage when you feel your strength failing. You are the valorous soldiers of peace. You should contribute, with earnestness and greater and greater love, to permanently establishing it in the world."
