Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

My child, you know how to love simply, without any of those complications which some humans delight in adding to it. Your heart is surrendered, joyful and free; it made its choices a long time ago. It knows that true love is free of any reasoning. It loves, that is what matters to it, as it has understood that love has to be lived spontaneously, in a state of perfect surrender.

"To reach this stage, some of our brothers have to engage in a long process of working on themselves; this is demanded by the learning process of life. The various tests which man must undergo make him confront himself, without any other recourse but his own strength. In these moments, he can assess his own assets.

"Is the faith developed in him of great help? He can assess the progress made by taking stock and taking into account his own reactions. He notes that he has grown, that sadhana made him grow stronger inside and led him to see life in a different light.

"From now on, he will move forward serenely, being cognisant that, for him also, the journey is initiatory and he will put all his heart into making a complete success of it."
