Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Thursday, November 8, 2001 - 10:00 a.m.

Yes, that is how it is; we feel the slightest agitations of your heart. To us, a soul is like a wide-open book. You cannot hide anything from us. The same is true for your fellow creatures; let them not believe that they have secret thoughts – there are no such things. We know with whom we are dealing. A classification is established by itself; close souls gather together and unite in a great ascending motion. A powerful force carries them away and strengthens them.

"Clear your mind of useless and negative thoughts, become models, associate yourself with the most subtle vibration, let yourself be carried away, trustful and happy, knowing that you are making progress in a redeeming way. There are families of souls; bonds among them are much stronger than in any human filiation. Be happy to have reached this level where you can figure out the great laws governing this world.

"You are never alone; millions of hearts beat at the same pace as yours. The infinitesimal and the infinitely great are only as One; they are one and the same breath of the Divine."
