Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Sunday, November 11, 2001 - 8:00 a.m.

My child, your heart is sad and weary. Forget your trials, come and rejuvenate yourself in our presence. We want the best for you; you know this, so do all our candidates who faithfully follow us. We lead them on a pathway where they can advance without any fear. It is a real privilege offered to all, thanks to a simple, non-demanding method which changes hearts by avoiding superfluity and the useless. You all were searching before encountering us and the spareness of this system convinced you.

"There are so many souls still wandering in search of a Master, longing for a true spirituality, yet they have not found the way befitting them! Times are changing; a great redeeming movement is in the offing. Many humans are aware of it but they have not provided for such a quest in their life.

"They do not know where to turn; they feel some emptiness, the need to change and to give a profound meaning to their life. When our way is more widely known, it will win a great many followers, whatever the false opinions about anything diverging from the big recognised religions.

"When the time comes, nothing will stop this upward trend."
